INTRODUCTION

The Lord says to His saints “to you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to the outsiders, it is not given” Without controversy, great is the mystery of God.

1 Timothy 3:16

1. God was manifest in the flesh
2. Justified in the spirit
3. Seen of angels
4. Preached to the Gentiles
5. Believe on, in the world
6. Received up into glory

This book did not come by the zeal of authorship. The contents came by divine dictation. All you will read in this book have no inclination of private interpretation. It contains the absolute mystery of the kingdom of eternal life. The Lord of all the earth has commanded me and empowered me to prophesy to the world of apostasy by the power in the Word of His deliverance and grace.

Blessed is your hand which took hold of this book to read. It is Recovery Book. Blessed are your eyes for what you will see in this book. Blessed is your mind for what you will assimilate. Blessed is your soul for living in this generation to see the birth of this book out of the womb of the hidden mysteries of the Kingdom.

It is not impossible that you might have found and perhaps read some religious books talking of the Spirit of God. This book will be used of the Lord to open your spiritual eyes to know more of your Creator. Your Creator who made the whole world is not in any way as man except in physical or outward resemblance. He is the timeless and endless God. Although the atheistic scientists have concluded their research that microbes existed about 3.5 billion years ago, even bacteria, the omniscience of the LORD God has another divine view. God Almighty is a hidden Mystery which natural mental imagination cannot understand. Please you must have to seek Him before finding Him.

This book is born out of hidden revelation in the invisible God. Honour and adoration be to the only true God for the bible sake. Please follow on to unveil some of the following availing scriptures.

Ephesians 1:3-5

V.3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who had blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ.

V.4 According as He had chosen us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love

V.5 Having predestinated us to the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will.

Ephesians 3:8-9

V. 8 ...That I should preach among the Gentiles "the unsearchable riches of Christ.

V.9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery which is hid in God who created from the beginning of the world, all things by Jesus Christ.

Colossians 1:26

V. 26 even the mystery which had been hid from ages and from generations, but now is made, manifested to His saints

Colossians 2:3

V.3 In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge

2 Timothy 1:9

V.9 Who has saved us and called us with a holy calling, not according to our good works, rather, according to His own purpose and grace, which He gave to us in Christ Jesus before the world began.

Titus 1:2

V.2 In hope of eternal life which God, that cannot lie, promised before the world began.

Romans 16:25-26

V.25 Now to His that is of Power to establish you according to the gospel of the kingdom, and the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept in secret since the world began

V.26 But now it's made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith.

The above scriptures you have just read are made to throw more light to the revealed secrets of life: which you are blessed to see and read in this recovery book. It is overwhelming and cannot be overemphasized, the blessed knowledge of God you are ordained to harvest. You will definitely understand while you read that it is unnatural to write immutable end time final hope for eternal life.

Embrace what you are reading for ever. Beware of human and satanic challenges to stop your true confession of the righteousness of faith. It is the Lord who can give you to know what you are reading because He loves you. That which you have, hold it fast till He returns.

PREFACE

COMPOSITION ANALYSIS

The scriptural references in this ANALYSIS88 majored from the original King James Version (KJV) most of the scriptures are paraphrased to give full analytical understanding to all classes of readers.

It contains several words which come in bold or highlighted letters. The aim of such is to significantly point to the objective of the sentence. It is a loud definition of a word or sentence showing the words to be remarked for notification.

As you can see, this book cover is built to protect the precious contents thereof from any liquid cheaply penetrating to soil the pages. The book has been greatly admired by critics who were highly amazed at the emergents of the hidden mysteries in the LORD.

Be informed that as you read this book in love and fear of God, you are linking up with the eternal glory. Your spirit will embrace sacredness. Healings of the spirit, soul and body are begun already to be fulfilling.

Read prayerfully. Follow up wisely. Discuss with the wise people. I doubt if non Spirit born believer may even have divine interest to read and enjoy it. This book contains the bread of life.

FOREWORD

I learnt through this book that Jesus said in the bible book of St John chapter 20:22 "Receive ye the Holy Ghost" and not "Receive ye the Holy spirit". In further research to find out why the author was very vocally emphatic on the Holy Ghost, I discovered that both Mary the mother of Jesus, Elizabeth, John the Baptist while still in the womb, Zacharias the father of John including Simeon were filled with the Holy Ghost ever before that identical Pentecost day. The era of the arrival signal of the Lord in flesh transmogrified God's Word to major on the word "HOLY GHOST.

I dug a bit deeper and I saw deeper than the deep.

No. 1

I saw the Holy Ghost operating in the Old Testament with the title "the Spirit" The Spirit of God."

2. He operated as the Spirit and Spirit of God in the
 - (i) Dispensation of Promise – Abraham
 - (ii) Dispensation of human government – Noah
 - (iii) Dispensation of the law - Moses
 - (iv) Dispensation of the Psalmists – David & 6
 - (v) Dispensation of the Prophets – Elijah, Jeremiah, Isaiah...

Furthermore, He manifested as Angel of the LORD and also as the Lord

As the Spirit: He was the Spirit in the prophets that prophesied of His futuristic advent, when he shall come into the world in flesh to suffer for the sins of the world; and to die and be glorified at last. Refer to I Peter 1:10-11. Without Him in a Prophet, there was no prophet.

3. When His everlasting pre-existed immortal body translated into the belly of a virgin called Mary, He was come to be born, suffer for the sins of the whole world, to die and be buried, to resurrect and become the most Holy everlasting Ghost. This stage is God's third (3rd) and final trifunctional transfiguration.

4. As long as the LORD God, who Himself is the Spirit (John 4:24), had concluded the to come this world in flesh, He sent down Elijah who was squatting in heaven to become the son of Zacharias and Elizabeth. As from that, an angel called Gabriel was sent to announce on earth, the "Holy Ghost" first of all to Zacharias. He instructed him that though his son to be, is coming in the spirit of Elijah, but shall be called John. He shall be filled with the Holy Ghost from his mother's womb.

That was the first time the Holy Ghost was mentioned on earth. The same angel came to Virgin Mary who will become the mother of Christ to announce to her saying, "...The Holy Ghost shall come upon you, ... that holy thing which shall be born of you shall be called the Son of God." Mary believed it and carried the Son of the Holy Ghost in her belly. This was the second time Holy Ghost was pronounced on earth by the same angel. Christ was actually to give up. These things were done within the space of six (6) months: signifying the number of man.

Virgin Mary carried the child of the Holy Ghost in her belly to congratulate Elizabeth, whom the angel informed Mary of her pregnancy, and was no longer called a barren. As soon as Mary knocked at her door, John who was in the womb of Elizabeth was instantly filled with the Holy Ghost. She was affected because; she was carrying a baby who was already filled with the Holy Ghost and was overwhelmed. When Zacharias was to name John on the eighth day, John already being filled with the Holy Ghost, Zechariah was also affected and was instantly filled with the Holy Ghost. Immediately he was healed of his dumbness and he prophesied.

These whole thing all began with Mary who distributed the flow while the holy thing was in her womb. It happened this way.

1. Mary was pregnant of the child of the Holy Ghost
2. By her visit to Elizabeth John was filled with the Holy Ghost from the womb
3. Elizabeth was overshadowed and she was filled with the Holy Ghost and prophesied.
4. Virgin Mary prophesied after Elizabeth
5. Zacharias prophesied being filled.
6. Simeon prophesied when he carried the child of the Holy Ghost on his hands in the temple.

The basis of this emphatic analysis on the above "Foreword " is to help expand your vision towards your dream book. You have cut hold to your dream book. This is your dream book, because you might have been too hungry to know more of your Creator God.

Continuous follow up on the Recovery Books must definitely transcend you to your eternal fulfillment to see your God. The authority of Recovery Books is like one who has been with God. By discovery, the Recovery Books publication is a continuation of the Pauline Epistles in the Holy Bible. If you cannot doubt the epistles according to St Paul, you cannot also doubt the contents in the Recovery Books

Live in joy as you peruse and read on.

Be filled with the riches of His grace.

Chapter 1

The Holy Ghost

The original KJV, that is, King James Version of the holy bible majored on the word, "Holy Ghost" and "the Spirit". All these are found both in the Old and New Testaments. However, the holy spirit appears once in the book of Psalms 51:11 and twice in Ephesians 1 vs 13 and 4 vs 30. It is only in Luke 11 vs 13 that the analytical scribe used capital letter H for holy before adding Spirit. Even in the Old Testament, the analytical scribes used lower case, that is, small letters s for spirit instead of the Spirit in capital letter S. Ephesians 1:13 rightly presents holy as an adjective qualifying capital letter Spirit. This is correct. Only the N.T. records Holy Ghost as how the Spirit should be addressed.

Beware that these discoveries should never make you think ill against the original King James Version (KJV) of the bible. We are in the last days where the Holy Ghost puts things right with love of understanding. I stand in the presence of the Lord to beseech you to never, ever dream to discard King James Version.

Of all the modern translated bible versions, which are modified to suit the modern readers' delight in terms of modern use of English words, King James Version stands out in the retention of the authentically inspired words from God. I have tried reading almost every new bible version as much as I can; God's Spirit won't let me go out of King James Version (KJV). I have not yet seen any bible version which "retains the divine concept of the biblical mysteries and revelation like KJV". Whatever be the case, the whole concept point to the Spirit of God.

A Bit of Indifference

I began to make an indebt research into spiritology when I had listened to religious sects who are anti-bible, but loyal to other sectarian beliefs and grandmasters, confessing of their own holy spirits. That seem so similar to what many users of the bible call the Spirit of God in their simple mind. The Wisdom of God does not permit me to give names of such sects, but you are free to research and investigate for your confirmation.

Having deduced spiritual understanding from the biblical arrangement, it has become very necessary to introduce the Kingdom pattern of full salvation language to the bible users. The spiritual problem majority are having today is misappropriation of use of the biblical conventional language. This is due the wrong choice of words. The Lord is good. He is ever ready to deliver any repentant soul who realises his transgression.

We must be aware that Satan the devil who impersonates God is also a spirit with a dissembled holiness. Many religious sects on earth belong to him. They are identified by their activities.

The Spirit of God

Whereas the holy Spirit features of four (4) times in the holy scriptures, Praise God, the Holy Ghost appears Eighty Nine (89) times in the New Testament alone.

The Old Testament contains a number of references to the Spirit belonging to God. They are analysed in this form

- (i) "The Spirit" appears Two Hundred and Twenty Two (222) times from Genesis to Malachi. This comprises both the Spirit of God and men at times Spirit of God appears in lower key.
- (ii) The Spirit appears Two Hundred and Thirty Four (234) times from Matthew to Revelation. Of all the scriptures containing "spirit" from Geneses to Revelation it connects to God, Christ, man and other Spirits.
- (iii) The Spirit of Christ appears Thirty (30) times in the New Testament

Wisdom Thinking

Note that it is not the will of God to hate anyone who lacks the perfect knowledge of the New Testament, or New Covenant which is the Renewed Will of God in Christ Jesus. We have to be very cautious regarding mysterious revelation you are about to know now, that you should not speak evil against anyone who has not seen what you have seen and heard. Note that it is endowed upon you only by the grace of God. The Spirit of God in you is a Lover of ignorants. You are saved to save others. Resist the devil from taking advantage of your understanding and knowledge. It is written that knowledge puffs up the mind (1 Corinthians 8:1). People are restored and brought in reconciliation with God by love. Love encourages. I am not sent to write to boost hatred, but to be sober minded. Dearly beloved, "heaven and earth may pass away, but my Word shall not pass away" says the Lord.

Although many O.T. scriptures use lower case or small letter for the Spirit of God Almighty, but the Holy Ghost comes in upper case that is, capital letter "S" as one name.

Chapter 2

MYSTERY OF THE HOLY GHOST

From Genesis to Malachi of the whole Old Testament, there is no single mention of the word, "Holy Ghost". Is it not amazing that of the entire thirty nine (39) books of the Old Testament, there was no mention of the Holy Ghost? It was not yet time for the scriptures to feature the word "Holy Ghost" according to the dispensational emergents of Testaments. Note that every mention of "the Spirit of God, or the Spirit in the whole bible point to the same Being. As I had earlier spoken by the Spirit of God, there is nobody who may know the mystery of the Holy Ghost without first of all, understanding who is the "Holy" and the "Ghost." I can perceive in my spirit that you are strongly desiring to know this mystery. May the Lord give us the grace to know Him. Amen.

The Holy

Naturally, “holy” comes under superlative or linguistic devices as an adjective qualifying a noun. Example: holy man; holy book; holy angel etc. “Holy” means “sacred”. Hebrew tongues calls it “goodish” meaning, “set apart”, separateness etc. The uses of the word, “holy” in the Old Testament come as adjective instead of noun.

Supernaturally, “Holy” comes as a proper noun, not even a pronoun. The name of God is Holy. The God Almighty whose name is Holy is a Spirit; the only Holy One of Israel (Isaiah 1:4; 5:24), even God. The uses of the “holy” in Psalm 51:11; Ephesians 1:13 and Ephesians 4:30 come as adjectives to qualify the Noun, being the “Spirit”. However, in the book of St Luke 11:13 it featured the same concept of adjective besides the analytical scribes (who compiled the sixty books of the bible), that used capital H for Holy before Spirit. Don't let this confuse you. Though it appears in capital letter that does not put adjective out of its place.

Genesis 1:2

Vs.2 And the earth was without form, and void; and darkness was upon the face of the deep. And the Spirit of God moved upon the face of the waters.

Analysis

The Spirit of God in Genesis 1:2 as referred above was supposed to begin with capital letter "S" as a proper noun, but in small letter instead, that is, a lower case. That scripture presented the spirit as an adjective qualifying God as a proper noun. Why? You may ask. The reason is, the scripture was only projecting God who is Himself. It was not projecting God and another person called “spirit. It is simply defining God the Creator who is an Immortal Spirit Being.

God is a complete tri-functional immortal being, having:

- a. Christ as His theophany - manifestation.
 - b. Soul To Feel
 - c. Spirit As His Life
1. Jesus Christ as His theophany (Image)
 - a. In which He lives (Isaiah 66:1; Col 1:13-15; 2 Cor 4:4; John 14:10; 1:18.
 - b. By which He manifests immortally and mortally by John 14: 7-9.
 2. Soul To Feel

Jeremiah 5:7, 9, 29

Vs.7 How shall I pardon you for this? Your children have forsaken Me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they then committed adultery, and assembled themselves by troops in the harlots' houses.

Vs.9 Shall I not visit for these things? says the LORD; and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

Vs.29 Shall I not visit for these things? Says the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

Jeremiah 9:8, 9

Vs.8 Their tongue is as an arrow shot out; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbour with his mouth, but in his heart he lays ambush.

Vs.9 Shall I not visit for these things? Says the LORD: shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

3. SPIRIT as His life.

John 4:24

Vs.24 God is a Spirit: and they that worship Him must worship Him in spirit and in truth.

Analysis

“...Worship Him in spirit....” Who are those that must worship Him? They are the children of mankind. The spirit of man is the life of man. The life of man is secret of man. As God is in secret from visible eyes, so He made man in His resemblance.

- a. He has eyes, He gave man eyes
- b. He has head, He gave man head
- c. He has hands, He gave man hands
- d. He has body, He gave man body
- e. He has feet, He gave man feet
- f. He has ears, He gave man ears
- g. He has blood, He gave man blood
- h. He is His own Spirit; hence He said, any one born of the Spirit is spirit (John 3:6)
- i. He is the ultimate Creator, He made man creative
- j. He is the ultimate Creator, He made man procreator
- k. He is the everlasting Father, He made man temporal father

Finally by the faith of man, his spirit dwells in God (Psalm 91:1). By God's Spirit He dwells in man (John 14:20, 23; 1 John 4:4; 5:4). God made angels and man to look like Himself. He gave man children, and He has only one begotten Son as well. By man's spirit which is his secret, he must worship God truthfully, who is the complete Spirit, in secret (Matt. 6: 3-6).

Example

Matthew 6:6

Vs.6 But you, when you pray, enter into your closet, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret; and your Father who sees in secret shall reward you openly

Psalms 25:14

Vs.14 The secret of God is with them that fear Him; and He will show them His covenant.

Bible teachers must not be experts to teach well. Secular teachings are far different from the biblical teaching. It is a divine gift by the Holy Ghost, to teach the mysterious revelation of the holy scriptures.

Read this:

2 Peter 1:20-21

Vs.20 Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.

Vs.21 For the prophecy did not come in old time by the will of man-flesh-self: but the holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.

The Holy Ghost cannot teach against Himself. Many human Trinitarian teachers seduce their audience to believe that, Genesis 1:2-3 is God and another person called the spirit creating the world. Hebrews 1:3 clearly defines "... the express Image of His Person...." This is the only mention of God as a person in the whole bible. God is only One Person, but tri-functional in His operations. Please God is a mysterious supernatural Being.

For in Him dwells the fullness of Godhead, bodily (Col. 2:9). This simply means "only one tri-functional Head.

Chapter 3

GHOST FOR GHOST

It is a very expensive statement for the holy scripture to call a man "a child or son or daughter of God." To be called a son of God, one has to become like a little Jesus. No not the very Jesus Christ, but a replica or a carbon copy of Jesus. This agrees with the scriptures which say in!

1 Peter 2:21

V.21 For even hereunto were you called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps.

Galatians 2:20

V. 20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but it is Christ that lives in me: and the live which i now live manifesting through my flesh, I am living by the faith of the Son of God; who loved me, and gave Himself for me.

L

Before going further with more scriptures, let this sink into your heart that a transformed human being who has been born of the Spirit, is a spirit, though he is still living in his natural fleshly body. The spirit of man is a living ghost using natural body to be able to live on this terrestrial earth planet. This is why it is said that someone has given up the ghost when he dies. If you are indeed in Christ you are a ghost still warning your flesh, because you are Christ who has resurrected as a Ghost. You are like a ghost in the Holy Ghost.

If you are in sin, satanic, you are a ghost of Satan. As soon as you depart from fleshly body by death, you will be separated to where you belong: while the flesh you used for your living will return to the dust and perish. Let this ring bell in your mind daily.

Philippians 2:13

V.13 For it is God who works in you both

(i) to will and

(ii) to do of His good pleasure. That is, as it pleases Him.

Colossians: 1:27

V.27 To who God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this Mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory.

Every bible believer likes to simply confess that Christ dwells in him. I wish no one should addict himself with such a fascinating imagination that the resurrected Christ lives in him just, because he wishes so. That scripture indicates that it is a mystery, a mysterious thing that the resurrected Ghost of all ghosts should dwell in the spirit of any living soul. He does not dwell in unsanctified spirit in man. For example, let's read through

Vs. 23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, in the feast day, many believed in His name, when they saw the Miracles which He did.

Vs. 24 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them (the believers in His name), because He knew all men,

Vs.25 And has no need that any should testify of man: for He knows what was / is in man

Mankind was naturally born filthy hence it is written that all have sin and come short of the glory of God. And again, it is written that we were shapened in iniquity, and in sin our mothers conceived us. Satan littered, or soiled over 99% of every soul that ever came into the earth with unholy practices which the Lord can never associate with. What do you say of Jesus not committing Himself to the multitude who believed in His name, because they saw His miracles?

God has provided supernatural detergent in the blood of Jesus Christ to flush off every satanic deposit in the human nature. With spots and wrinkles in any life, Christ can be with you and not in you. Life with spot and wrinkles is a misery, but the life of Christ is a mystery. If any man is full cleansed, his life becomes free for the mysterious presence of Christ in him.

Why should the Lord Jesus Christ choose to stand at the door of the heart knocking according to Revelation 3:20? The answer is clear. He wants you to give up what He cannot co-habit with. Man is not perfectly clean. He is either proud, unloving, self centred, crafty, deceitful, lustful, ritualistically holy, or robbing God of tithe and offering, hypocritical, or various compromises etc.

The nature of Satan inseminated into man, has become the nature of man since the fall into sin in the Garden of Eden. You have need of divine nature from God where Christ may conveniently dwell to bring in the hope of glory. The divine nature as recorded in 2 Peter 1:4 is the very nature of God to replace Satan's nature in men.

Chapter 4

LET US MAKE MAN

Genesis 1 vs 26-27

Vs.26 And God said, Let us make man in our image, and after our likeness, that is, to look like us: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creeps upon the earth.

L

Vs.27 So God (only) created man in His, own image, (Which is Christ the LORD) Eph 2:10, In the only one image of God, He created him; He created them male and female.

Analysis

To love teaching people of God from the holy bible is a very good zeal, to reduce number of wickedness on earth. However, note that the book containing the holy scriptures is titled "The Holy Bible." It is holy, because God whose name is HOLY dictated the holy scriptures contained in it. The Lord Jesus has said categorically, that the scriptures cannot be broken in John 10:35. One hundred percent (100%) devotion to bible reading and studies can never reveal God to anyone. Remember please, that Satan knows the words of God more than any man that lives upon the earth, but he is still Satan the devil; the arch enemy of God Almighty. Knowing the words of God made no changes in him.

With the help of Satan, many lovers of bible teaching have grown into the pride of knowledge and become entirely unteachable. This is a serious eternal damage. To teach the words of God to fellow souls,

Firstly: you must be taught of God (John 6:45; Isaiah 54:13)

Secondly: you must know that God is a Spirit; and understand the kind of Spirit He is (Isa 41:4; Deuteronomy 29:29; 32:39; 4:2; Revelation 22:18-19; Proverbs 30:6).

Thirdly: you must be Born Again by the Spirit (John 3:3,6; 1:12-13; Galatians 6:15; 2 Cor 5:17; 2 Timothy 1:9; 1 Peter 1:23; 1 John 3:9).

No man can be justified by either adding or subtracting from what God says: hence only few shall be saved as He says. Any slight negligence to any of those three necessities will definitely mislead the cumbersome bible teacher; and followers. God's words are not dusting. Listen now to the Spirit.

In Genesis chapter 1 verse 26, God said, "Let us make man in our image." The "us" and "our" as you see highlighted, did not multiply God. God is an unchangeable Changer, that is, He is a Multiplier that cannot be multiplied. He is the invisible God of foreknowledge, who programmed Himself and came into the world by His Image, the Lord (Jesus), which is His body. The bible book of Revelation 13 verse 15 reveals that the dragon which was created by God was able to make the image of the beast to speak in order to deceive the world.

How much more would the Almighty God be more than able to empower His own Image to save the deceived world? God did not speak to another second person, or another god to join Him to create man. God rather spoke to Himself. You may say, how was that? Can I ask if you have forgotten that God is mysterious and wonderful? Have you forgotten that with God nothing is impossible? Listen my good friend, you do speak to your body or image too. Do you want to know how you speak or command your own body? Now let's revisit how man was created, and formed.

Genesis 2 vs 7

Vs.7 And the LORD God formed man (man's body) of the dust of the ground, and breathed (his spirit created in the image of God), into his nostrils (formed out the dust of the ground) the breath of life; and man became a living soul.

Analysis

"The breath of life" which came out from the image of immortal Body of God where He created the spirit of man, passed through the nostrils of God into the nostrils He formed for man on the ground. That was how the spirit of the first Adam entered into the natural sandy body formed or built for him. That is why Luke 3:38 identifies Adam as the son born by God. That is how we are. We are spirits created in the image of the supernatural invisible God. We humans wear the image of dust which became flesh. When man's body dies, read the following scripture.

Ecclesiastes 12:7

Vs.7 Then shall the dust return to the earth (ground) as it was (before it was used, to form the mortal body): and the spirit (which was created in Christ the image of the invisible God), shall return to God who gave it.

We were created in Christ Jesus... (Eph. 2:10)

We, the spirit beings living in our mortal bodies command our bodies to do what they do, whether good or evil. It is we the spirits in the body that use the body to either fight, lie, steal, cheat kill, fornicate, or not etc. On the judgment day of God, the body or flesh shall not be judged or condemned. It is we, the spirits who lived and used the body for either good or bad, shall be judged

2 Corinthians 5:10

Vs.10 For we must all appear, immortal, before the judgement seat of Christ; that every one may receive reward of things done in his body, according to the things he had used His dy to do, whether it be good or bad.

The rich man according St Luke 16:23-24 suffered the penalty of all he used his body to do on earth after he had separated his body to the dust and went to hell. The whole episode began from verses 19-31. It is we that send our body to do what they do; as Satan or Dragon uses image of the beast Revelation 13:15. We can send our body to the toilet, bathroom, school, stay in, stay out, wait, or not.

Also make no mistake to think that Satan does not live together with religious or nonreligious persons in the same body as you chose. As we use our body or image, even more so, God uses His own Image; Christ, to reach and touch the whole world. As God is invisible, but could only be seen through Jesus, His manifestation, or theophany, even so, we as spirits living in mortal bodies are invisible, but could only be seen through our bodies manifesting our invisible spirit which is within our body.

Thinking of God through our myopic mortal mentality will end up being confused to see God as Trinity. This they mean to be three persons. They also call Him a triune. If God is three persons, there must be three (3) bodies or images or heads; and none of such is in the sacred scriptures. It is rather written that there is only one God, one Spirit and body. The God, who is the Spirit, is having only one body (Eph. 4: 4-6).

God is not a demon please! He made us like His own self; that is – “after our likeness” as written in Genesis 1:26. No great false prophet had been heard to say, he saw written in the bible that the Father and the Son were speaking the same time or conversing. It is either God is speaking as LORD and Father, or the Son. John 1: 1-3, 9, 10, 14 may guide you to the true story of one God. I Tim. 3:16 will do much more.

The Life in the Mortal

The life in us is the spirit the LORD God breathed out of His theophany - Image as it were by travail, through His nostrils into our nostrils. It is written in,

John 1:4, 1-3

Vs.4 In Him was life; and the life was the light of men.

L

Verses 1 In the Beginning was the word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

Verses 2 The same was in the beginning with God

Verses 3 All things were made by Him; and without Him was not anything made that was made.

In Him was life. We came out of Life that is why we are accountable to that Life; the source of our origin. I am sure you may not deny that the LORD is speaking to you directly. The Lord says I am the resurrection and the Life John 11:25. He also said so in John 14:6 and the same John 8:12, if you are His follower you shall have the light of Life.

Three Mission of God

Our Lord's Prayer

Tri-functional - One in One let them be one in us. God used the word us that man's level of knowledge may understand. It is like, 1 John 5:7, for God and vs. 8 for man to understand verse 7.

God is tri-function not triune.

Study the whole bible and see if God and Jesus are heard to be discussing each one with His voice. Wouldn't that be voices?. But there are no two voices in God. God and Christ Jesus have only one voice.

Composition of the Holy Ghost

God is a Spirit. John 4:24

Now the Lord Jesus is that Spirit. 2 Cor. 3:18

God is the Almighty. Ex. 6:3

Christ Jesus is the Almighty. Rev. 1:8

God is our everlasting Father. Matt. 23:9

Jesus Christ is our everlasting Father.

Jn. 14: 8-9; Isa 9:6

Jesus is the Lord. John 13:13; 14; 10:30

Godhead - tri-functional. Col. 2:9 - Not heads

God is the beginning and the end

Jesus Christ is the beginning and end. Rev. 22:13

God is the first & Last. Isa. 41:4

Christ is the first & Last. Rev. 1:11, 17-18

Christ is the Light. Jn. 1:9

God is the Light. Ps. 27:1

God is the Creator. Gen. 1:1

Christ is the Creator. Col. 1:16

God fills Heaven & Earth. Jer. 23:24

Christ fills all in all. Eph. 4:10

God works all in all. 1 Cor. 12:6; Eph. 4:6

The Christ we know as man on earth declared His true Person when He returned to heaven. Most of the things He said in heaven, He wouldn't say so when He was on earth, because no man will believe Him as their fellow man. Only once He said "Before Abraham was, I am", they took up stones against Him. (John 8: 58-59).

Chapter 5

THE NAME OF GOD

Isaiah 57:15

Vs.15 For thus says the high and Lofty one that inhabits eternity, whose name is, Holy; I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite ones.

Psalms 111:9

Vs.9 He sent redemption to His people: He has commanded His covenant for ever: Holy and Reverend is His name.

Have you ever imagined why people title themselves reverends, the very name of God? It appears just once in entire bible. Who introduced this idea? Who divinely authenticated it for man to use it as title?

Whereas the name of God Almighty appears as Holy, there are other epithets pointing to His name as proper nouns as well.

They are:

- i. I AM THAT I AM
- ii. THE LORD
- iii. THE FIRST AND LAST
- iv. ALFA AND OMEGA
- v. THE ALMIGHTY
- vi. MOST HIGH

There could be others like EVERLASTING FATHER etc, but let's discretely peruse into HOLY due to its involvement in this context. In a bid to associate HOLY and GHOST in agreement as one name, we think of driving or navigating through the axis of geometry, in order to see how two parallel lines may agree as one.

GHOST

We had already seen that "holy" featured severally as adjective, and finally came up as a proper noun for the name of the LORD. Whereas HOLY comes with GHOST as the Spirit of the LORD, why the GHOST?

What is A Ghost

Ghost is the manifestation of a person who was known to have died and buried. This is different from seeing a suspected spirit flash across the eyes in less than a second. The full example of the biblical Ghost is found in various scriptures. In the process, we shall be previewing the everlasting Ghost body.

Chapter 6

NEW TESTAMENT HOLY GHOST

The Ghost we are reading below is Holy. Let's go.

St Luke 24:1-7

Vs.1 Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the sepulchre, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

Vs.2 And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulchre.

Vs.3 And they entered in, and found not the body of the (buried) Lord Jesus.

Vs.4 And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed thereabout, behold two (angels) men stood by them in shining garments.

Vs.5 And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they (the angels) said to them, why do you seek the living among the dead?

Vs.6 He is not here, but is risen: remember how He spoke to you when He was yet in Galilee

Vs.7 Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and rise again on the third (3rd) day.

Analysis

The angels who witnessed the resurrection of Jesus the Lord into immortality bare witness. By the resurrection of the Holy Lord Jesus, He had become a Ghost if He ever manifests to human sight to be seen again. Now let's proceed

Luke 24:13-

Vs.13 And, (lo and) behold, two of His disciples went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was about sixty furlongs (about 7½ miles) from Jerusalem.

Vs.15 And it came to pass that, while they talked with each other and reasoned together, Jesus (the Ghost) Himself drew near, and went with them.

Vs.17 And He said to them; what manner of communications are these that you are discussing among yourselves as you walk, looking sad?

Vs.24 And certain of them who are of our brethren went to the sepulchre and found exactly even as the women had reported (that He is risen): but they did not see Him.

Vs.25 Then He said to them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken;

Vs.28 And they drew near to the village, where they were going to, and He made as though He would have gone further.

Vs.29 But they constrained Him, to abide with them for it was evening. And He went in to be with them.

Vs.30 and it came to pass, as He sat down to have meal with them, He took bread, and blessed it, and break, and gave to them.

Vs.31 And their eyes were opened, and they knew Him; and He vanished out of their sight.

Analysis

All the accounts we have been reading from St Luke chapter 24, are pointing to the resurrected of the Holy Jesus as the New Testament Ghost. He is now a Ghost, because He was dead, resurrected and manifested to people. This Ghost is a Spirit with immortal body: and this body is what the scriptures call His Church. Please read the following:

2 Corinthians 3:17

Vs.17 Now the Lord (Jesus) is that Spirit (Holy Ghost), and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is Liberty.

Liberty means freedom. Jesus the Lord says in John's gospel 8:36 "if the Son therefore shall make you free, you shall be free (be in liberty) indeed."

St Luke 24:33

Vs.33 And they rose up the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem and found the eleven gathered together, and them that were with them,

Vs.34 Saying, the Lord is risen indeed, and had appeared to Simon. (1 Cor 15:5).

Vs.36 And as they were speaking, Jesus (the Ghost) Himself stood in the midst of them and said to them, Peace be to you.

Vs.37 (Being a Ghost) ... they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen (just) a (mere) spirit.

Analysis

You must remark that the disciples of Jesus were not used to be frightened of Him before He became a Ghost. Remember that at the last supper, John laid on his chest. Jesus Himself was not used to entering into the house with doors and windows shut. Being now the Holy-Ghost, He can meet you in the closet and deliver you. The Holy Jesus now, having become the New Testament Ghost, this is presently the third (3rd) function of the Godhead (Col 2:9). As you read this book with free mind and free spirit, the Lord will be driving your mind to review Trinity – that is, three persons as God, and Tri-functionality of the only one monotheistic living God. This mystery is far beyond organic chemistry.

St Luke 24:38-39

Vs.38 And He said to them, why are you troubled? And why do thoughts arise in your hearts?

Vs.39 Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a (mere) spirit has no flesh and bone as you see me have.

Analysis

Every communication from St Luke's book chapter 24 between Christ and His disciples was as Ghost, that is, Immortality communicating with Mortality. To find out if the above statement was so, read Ghost discussing freely with men.

Acts 1 verses 1-2

Vs.1 The former treatise have I made, ...of all that Jesus began both to do and teach.

Vs.2 Until the day in which He was taken up, after that He through the Holy Ghost had given commandments to the apostles whom He had chosen.

Analysis

The Lord appeared not less than three times to His disciples after His resurrection. At His last appearance, He led His disciples immortally towards Mount Olivet from where He finally took off to Heaven. He admonished them with reminder to the rules He laid down for them to follow. Why was it that through the Holy Ghost He gave them commandments while the Holy Ghost as we know, had not yet come? The Pentecost day had not come? Read again Acts 1:2

Acts 1 vs2

The above scripture definitely points to the resurrected Jesus as the Holy Ghost

Listen to this

...After that through the Holy Ghost had given commandments to the apostles.

If you are yet to understand this, you still have an opportunity for another scripture shortly. However Acts 1:2 shows that Jesus the Holy resurrected Ghost gave commandments to His apostles through the Holy Ghost image or body. Through His Ghost image; He gave commandments. This was different from the commandments He gave before He manifested as the Ghost after resurrection. This Ghost is the Holy. His Ghost is Holy Ghost. Christ is all about God. He is in the Father, and the Father in Him. He is the everlasting Father (Isaiah 9:6).

There are no two everlasting Fathers Isa 9:6. The history of God is that Christ is “the Holiest of all” as fully analysed in Hebrews 9:1-3 and verses 4 to 28. Christ is all things of Doctrine to the church. Christ was the Spirit in the prophets of old (1 Pet 1:9-11). He has always been the Spirit. He was and is the baptism of the Holy Ghost and fire. (Matthew 3:11; Luke 12:50). When John the Baptist said by the Spirit that God did not give Jesus the Spirit by measure; this meaning He is the Whole Spirit (John 3:34). My beloved people of God, God is all Mystery that the scientists and philosophers of all generations have never understood to analyse. The following scripture may bless you forever. In those scriptures, Jesus Christ points to Himself as the oncoming Comforter, even the Holy Ghost.

John 20:22

And when he had said this, he breathed on them and saith unto them, Receive ye the Holy Ghost.

Chapter 7

I WILL COME TO YOU

John 14:16-18 Jesus Says

Vs.16 I will pray the Father, and He shall give you another Comforter that He may abide with you forever.

L

Vs.17 Even the Spirit of truth; (Who is now that Spirit?) (Who is the truth?) Whom the world cannot receive because it does not see Him or knows Him: (Look at this): BUT YOU KNOW HIM; FOR He dwells with you, and shall be in you.

He was, and He is, and He is to come the Almighty (Revelation 1:7-8). He knows what He said. Christ was the Comfort of the disciples, but must return as the same Comforter spiritually; He is right. When He was with them they knew Him. He said “BUT YOU KNOW HIM”. He was spiritually going to come to them spiritually as the Holy Ghost to be in them, as He was dwelling with them. To crown it all, He said.

John 14; 18

Vs.18 I will not leave you comfortless: I WILL COME TO YOU. He is the most Holy – Ghost.

Those who do not submit to believe that all things were by Him and for Him: and that in Him all things consist (Col 1:16-17), I am sorry to say they should pray harder to escape from the sin of bigots and Pharisees. Such persons may die in their sin if they refuse to believe He is the ultimacy of the work of God.

Please you are not made to see the revelation of the kingdom as confusing, due to the way you were taught in times past, to grow maturely on the outskirts of the only kingdom life gospel. Do not forget it is written that to you saints of God it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of heaven or God: but to those who chose to remain outside the saving humility, everything is parabolic. (Mark 4:11 and Matthew 13:11).

Jesus Christ Before His Death

John 15:26

Vs.26 But when the Comforter is come, WHOM I WILL SEND to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth... He shall testify of me.

John 14:26

Vs.26 But the Comforter which is the Holy Ghost whom the Father will send in my name, He shall teach you all things, and bring all things, to your remembrance; whatsoever I have said to you.

Analysis

Look at the above scriptures properly again. Do you see that the comforter, the Holy Ghost is in the name of Jesus? Without the Holy Ghost dwelling in a man, he is tempted to think that the scriptures contradict themselves. Especially reading through the two last scriptures, you wonder why Jesus the Lord of all, made two statements which naturally seem as though they are contradictory. No, God forbid. They are the same if only you fully understand who is the Father; who is the Son and who the Holy Ghost. (1) The Lord said the Father will send the Comforter. (2) Again He said, Himself will send Him. (3) Furthermore He said, He shall testify of Him. (4) Again He said "I will not leave you comfortless, I will come to you.

Those speeches are where you should learn the lesson you want to know. You know Jesus is the Truth. Humble yourself. Listen spiritually to the voice of God.

What do all these mysterious speeches mean to you the reader? Now know whom you believe.

John 16:13

Vs.13 Howbeit when He, the Spirit of truth, is come, He will guide you into all truth: for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatever He shall hear, that shall He speak: and He will show you things to come.

Revelation 1:1 confirms that Christ is the Revealer of the things to come.

Read also, Rev. 22:16

Analysis

In that scripture, the Lord presents the Holy Ghost as a Messenger like Himself. He said, "...for He shall not speak of Himself; but whatsoever He shall hear, that shall He speak..." "He shall not speak of Himself" simply means He is not another person with another voice and other words. Let us also remember clearly that the Lord Jesus placed that position of the Holy Ghost in the ultimate divine reverence by saying;

Matthew 12:31-32,

Vs.31 Wherefore I say to you, all manner of sin and blasphemy shall be forgiven to men: but the blasphemy against the Holy Ghost shall not be forgiven to men.

Vs.32 And whosoever speaks a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him; but whosoever speaks against the Holy Ghost, it shall neither be forgiven him in this world, nor in the world to come.

Having read through all of this, can you now reconcile why Jesus brought the Holy Ghost as a Messenger that will not speak except He hears?. In John 16 verse 14, He says "He shall glorify me."

What is this we are reading? Are you questioning the same? The mysteries of God seem "controversial". Without controversy great is the mystery of godliness. God was made manifest in the flesh as Jesus Christ. God sent Jesus the Lord; meaning that God sent His Lordship of Him from immortality to mortality. Now the same Lord is now that Spirit – Holy Ghost. The Lord Jesus now being born as Son of man, is simply saying that He who is now that Spirit, the Holy Ghost, is still a Messenger of the covenant (Malachi 3:1). It is one God of mysteries.

1 Corinthians 12:6

Vs.6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who is working all in all. This is the scripture.

His Divine Conception

His divine conception has been analysed in this book, that God conceived Himself into a womb of a holy and chaste virgin by mystery and was born as a holy Son of God without human interference. By human legal judgment, Holy Ghost is the Father of Jesus Christ. Prove it now.

Matthew 1:18

Vs.18 Now the birth of Jesus Christ was on this wise: When as His mother Mary was espoused to Joseph, before they came together (as husband and wife), she was found with child of the Holy Ghost.

What do you see to that?

By the statement in the scripture according to Matthew 12 verses 31 and 32; and also 1:18, we hear Jesus the Son of man placing the Holy Ghost in the highest awesome honour even higher than the Son man. Now how come Jesus again seeming to place the Holy Ghost as a Messenger like Himself and saying that the Holy Ghost must not act without instruction: and must testify of Him? No wonder He told the His disciples to tarry in Jerusalem until they were endued with the power from on high. (Luke 24:49). You must remember that several times the Lord God swore in the scriptures the swore by His name, for He is the Creator of all.

Who instructs the Lord of all the universe? From whom will He hear before acting? Some of His mysteries might have been a puzzle to some thinkers. The answer is this: the Lord is above all, that is why He swears by His name (Hebrews 6: 13, 16). God is instructed by Himself. He is the WORD. He cannot change. His will is in Him who is the WORD (John 1, 4, 9, 10, 14...). He does not compromise His will. He is ruled by His patterned will.

Why is it that the spiritual wrong applications about the standard of God are always more fluent and popular in the mortal tongues? Now we are in the New Testament of the Holy Ghost operations. You have also heard the Christians shouting Holy Spirit, Holy Spirit about. Consider this as you read through this book. This is Recovery Book. Open up and receive your eternal recovery today. Don't miss it in Jesus name.

The Lord allowed the mystery of God in order to bring His fear into the hearts of them that know it and receive it. The Holy Ghost is the power of the Kingdom of God that fulfilled on a Pentecost day (Acts 2:1-4). Take note also, that Christ is the power of God. I Cor.1:24. In Jesus Christ ...is the Father and the Holy Ghost. He is all in all. He only segmented His operations to Function as the Father
Function as the Son
Function as the Holy Ghost.

The mysterious works and the supernatural gifts and operations of the Lord are attributed to the Spirit.

Chapter 8

HOLY GHOST ONLY

In New Testament

We have all agreed that the scriptures contained in the bible are holy and mysterious. As we had discussed earlier how the Spirit is identified in the Old Testament as adjective connected to the holy: so it is. We have only found, the spirit, or spirit; the Holy Spirit or Spirit; the spirit, or Spirit of God. We have not yet found any single reference of the Holy Ghost. It is only in the New Testament that the Holy Ghost began to feature in the holy scriptures for eighty nine (89) times. Why is it so?

L

1. God is completely a Spirit living forever in His image, that is, Christ. John 14:10; 10:38; 17:21

2. In the Old Testament He was only manifesting to men by His immortal Body: especially to Abraham Genesis 18:1
3. Being a Spirit, the God of the spirits of all flesh, Num 16:22, He must come to save man of the flesh from his nature of sinfulness,
4. To come to dwell on earth physically for sometimes, He must follow the process of natural birth by coming out of immortal image to mortality.
5. By the power of His everlasting supernatural immortality in the Word, He conceived Himself into a holy and chaste virgin and was born mortal from immortality: to save us from sin Matthew 1:21.
6. While He was still putting on His immortal body of the Old Testament, or Covenant, the Old Testament scriptures cannot portray Him as a Ghost, although His Ghost is the Spirit.
7. The New Testament features Him as Holy Ghost, because
 - i. He is the Holy – Holy and Reverend is His name (Psalms 111:9).
 - ii. He is perfectly holy (Matthew 5:48)
 - iii. He is the Ghost, because of death and resurrection
 - iv. His resurrection Body is the Holy Ghost Body
 - v. Both Holy and Ghost appear in capital letters, because He is the Holy and He is the Ghost
 - vi. Both Holy and Ghost joined together becomes one proper noun, one name: that is, Holy Ghost.

Old Testament

The Old Testament presents Him as a Spirit or holy Spirit, because He was yet to come into the mortality that will transmogrify into immortality. This is why the sacred scriptures did not feature Holy Ghost in the Old Testament. How should He be called a Ghost whereas He was not known to have died any time? Before He came to suffer and die for our sins and iniquities, He was only revealed as Holy God, Lord, Spirit, Spirit of God: not “Ghost of God, or of the Lord.” Now we have the Ghost of the Lord, because by our sin and transgressions, we made our ever living holy Lord to come as man and died for us, resurrected in holiness and remained still, our ever living Holy Ghost.

Pre-existed Immortal Glory

Exodus 33:13-15, 17

Vs.13 Now therefore I beseech you, if I have found grace in your sight, show me now your way that I may know you, that I may find grace in your sight: and consider that this nation is your people.

Vs.14 And He said, My presence shall go with you, and I will give you rest.

Vs.15 And he (Moses) said to Him (the LORD), if your presence does not go with me, do not carry us out from here.

Vs.17 And the LORD said to Moses, I will do this thing which you have also spoken: for you have found grace in my sight, and I know you by name.

Upon all these promises the LORD made to Moses in their dialogue, Moses would not let Him go. He pressed forward to know more of the Lord. We should identify with such role models as Moses if we must enjoy the LORD as they did. Moses went on to say according to:

Exodus 33:18

Vs.18 ... I beseech you, show me your glory

The Lord's Response

Vs.19 And He (the LORD), said, I will make all my goodness pass before you, and I will proclaim the name of LORD before you; and will be gracious to whom I will be gracious, and will show mercy on whom I will show mercy.

Vs.20 And He (the LORD) said, you cannot see my face: for there shall no (mortal) man see me, and live.

Vs.21 And the LORD said, behold, there is a place by me, and you shall stand upon a rock.

Vs.22 And it shall come to pass, while my glory (you requested) passes by, that I will put you in a cleft of the rock, and will cover you with my hand while I pass by.

Vs.23 And I will take away mine hand, and you shall see my back parts: but My face shall not be seen.

Analysis

The scriptures cannot be broken as the Lord has said. You might have read in this book that the Lord Jesus is His theophany, projection or manifestation. When God manifests, He is the Lord; for no man has seen God at anytime, but His manifestation – the Lord (John 1:18). When He came down upon Mount Sinai, read the following;

Read Exodus 19:18

Vs.18 And Mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the LORD descended upon it in fire:

Ever before the LORD manifested to the world in flesh, He permitted Moses to see His glorious body, which was finally glorified through His resurrection. His resurrection is His glorification in the New Testament. Moses went too far with the LORD please. The body shown to Moses is His glorious Church. He presented His Body as vine, that is A. Tree: and His disciples - saints as His branches (John 15:5).

The saint as His living branches are of the same Tree which is His immortal Body. This Body in which the Spirit of God lives, dwells permanently, built without hands, is what God sees and knows as His Church. This is the only true reason in the Holy Bible in why the Church is called THE BODY OF CHRIST. When this man Moses returned from His mountain the second time, he had to protect the skin of his face from human view, because it carried celestial glory. It is definitely on his mission to this mountain the LORD might have revealed to him how He made the heaven and earth.

Also, how the world was destroyed by flood: How Noah built the ark of gopher wood by God's specified dimensions. How the world restarted – repopulated through Noah. How language of the world changed from one to so many. How He covenanted and called Abram and changed his name to Abraham. How His covenant with Abraham became a Seed by whom all the families of the world should be blessed; and how the Seed transited into the loins of King David, until holy virgin Mary conceived of Him to become the Saviour of the whole world from sin. No man was there when God created the universe but He chose to reveal it to whom He would.

It was the same One everlasting body Eph. 4:4 Moses saw upon the mountain rock that mysteriously got into the womb of the holy virgin Mary, to be conceived and was born as the Son of God. Never for one day did He ever call Mary Mother Jn. 2:4; 19:26-27. Though Mary conceived Him in her virgin womb, He was the Creator of Mary. Mary was His evangelical messenger or witness (John 2:5). There is only one God who owns His one Body, or organic image, and this God is one Spirit (Ephesians 4:4-6). The Lord who was before Abraham and the whole universe is the introducer of writings, science and technology. He is the omniscient Writer.

John 8:58

“...Verily, verily I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am...”

The Jews confirmed that He attended no secular academic institution, but He is sound and very learned and educated.

John 7:15

And the Jews marvelled, saying, how does this man know letters, having never learned from any school?

Read

Exodus 31:18

Vs.18 And He gave to Moses, when He had made an end of communing with him upon Mount Sinai, two tables of testimony tables of stone, WRITTEN WITH THE FINGER OF GOD.

When he was on earth, and even out of the earth, He was always titled as Lord, because He had associated with man as a Man. In His immortal glory He is the four capital letters LORD.

When Moses got down from the Mount, his anger was kindled when he met the Israelites worshipping idol as God; and he break the two tables of stone he got from the Lord. He returned to the mountain on appointment with the LORD; and received another exactly, similar to what was destroyed
(Exodus 34:28-30).

The LORD has warned that no man should either subtract, or add to His everlasting edited words (Revelation 22:18-19). The LORD took to use the name Jesus when He came into the world in flesh. Jesus literally means "The Saviour". Being translated from Greek to English, it is rendered as "Jehovah is salvation". However, this Person called Jesus is the Lord and Christ. At His name every knee should bow, in heaven, on earth and under the earth (Phil. 2: 9-11).

Chapter 9

THE CREATION AND AFTER

In the entire verses of Genesis chapter one, there is no feature as the word LORD. You will only find the word, "God". The reason is that He created as God, and controls saves as LORD. Before the Creation there was nothing to Lord over, or control. In chapter two (2) of Genesis, verse one (1) records that the creation of heavens and earth including the host of them, were finished. Verse two details that He rested on the seventh (7th) day from all His work and did not continue working. In verse three (3), we found that HE blessed the seventh (7th) day of His rest "from all His work which God created and made." Now, let's read verse four (4) together

Genesis 2:4

Vs.4 These are the generations of the heavens (planets) and of the earth when they were created, in the day that the LORD God made the earth and the heavens (planets).

Analysis

In verse 4 was the first time "LORD" began to feature in the Holy Scriptures. It began concurring even in verses 5,7,8,15,16,18,19,21,22, all in the same chapter 2. In chapter 1 verses 26,27 and 28, the scriptures confirm that God made man in(side) His own image. He created male and female. Chapter 2 verse 7 shows how and when he formed a body for the man He created inside His own image. After forming that body out of the dust of the ground, He delivered the spirit of man He created in His own image, through His own nostrils, into the nostrils of the body He formed out of the dust of the ground. He came out from the nostrils of the LORD's image as breath, or spirit. Being a spirit, was located into his local body. He was created as a spirit inside the very own spiritual or immortal image of God. Man is a spirit created in the image of the Spirit which is God Himself: and breathed out by the LORD, which is out of the image of God, into his own local body to manifest and live on earth physically.

The local holy man is living on the inside, his body which is made out the dust, having his anatomy (ies) to handle, walk, see and procreate. Man's local body procreates the same as the plants that grow out of the dust of the ground, and animals procreate too. It is you, the spirit man in your body that controls your hands, legs, eyes, head, ears etc. The LORD does not rebuke the flesh, but the man using his body. You are what you do with your body anatomies from the inside. What you do on the outward is who you are on the inside. The outward body represent who uses it from the inside.

I do hereby repeat that on the final day of the judgment of every soul, as I had quoted from 2 Corinthians 5:10, the Lord shall not judge the flesh, but the inner man of the spirit that used his body. The hand, legs, feet, eyes, tongue etc. have no sense. They are, but tools used by their owner, the inner man of the spirit. The legs, feet, hands, eyes etc, cannot corrupt spirit man that uses them to promote his corruption outwardly. They have no sense. It is spirit man who owns, uses his sense to control, to do what they do. They are life-less without the spirit man, who is the breath of life which came out of the nostrils from God's image being the Lord.

Corruption begins from the inside of man. It begins through evil communication (1 Corinthians 15:33). You communicate through conversation, looking, hearing, discussion etc. As soon as your heart expresses interest on anything God hates as evil and iniquity, corruption has began. The book of

Proverbs 4:23 says,

“Keep your heart with all diligence; for out it are the issues of life.”

It is the LORD who introduced house, door and knocking before permitted to come in. He built man's local body as his dwelling place (1 Cor. 6:13). As a man has every right of lordship over his house and properties, that is how he has all rights over his body to use it under loyalty to God or Satan. God's words and pattern are His policy of covenant. Heaven and earth shall pass away, but His word shall not pass away. The reason is, His Word is He, the everlasting Father: even the God of the spirits of all flesh. In honour and dignity to His word, he says in:

Revelation 3:20

Vs.20 Behold, I stand at the door (of the heart), and knock: if any man hears my voice, and opens the door, I will come in to him, (his heart – to save him, cleanse him from “the corruption of this world through lust 2 Peter 1:4) and will sup (feast) with him, and he with Me.

All these activities will happen on the inside. You shall be washed and cleansed from the hopeless joy of sin, and rejoice in the hope of eternal glory. Remember once again that

Ecclesiastes 12:7 says

Vs.7 Then shall the dust (human body or flesh) return to the earth (ground) as it was: and the spirit (the breath of life) shall return to God who gave it, (for accountability of how he used his body, whether it was used for good or for evil, obedience to God or to Satan as ally.

At The End

Jesus has the final say where you will go or return for eternal habitation. He is the Judge of all; but today He is open for reconciliation, friendship and relationship. Please judgment is unfriendly. Today is the day of salvation (2 Cor. 6:2). On the white throne judgment, the humble Lamb shall judge with wrath and recompense.

Revelation 6:15-17

Vs.15 The disobedient dignitaries of today, kings and great men and women of this world chief captains, mighty man, bondmen and free, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains shall cry out to the mountains and rocks to hide them for a covering.

Vs.16 And said to the mountains and rocks, fall on us and hide us from the face of Him that sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb

Vs.17 For the great day of His wrath is come; and who shall be able to stand?

Acts 17:30-31

Vs.30 And the times of this ignorance God winked at (overlooked); but now He commands all men every where to repent.

Vs.31 Because He has appointed a day, in which He will judge the world in righteousness by that man whom He has ordained or of whom having given assurance (proof) to all men, in that He raised Him (Jesus) from the dead.

John 5:22-25, 27-28

Vs.22 For the Father judges no man, but has committed all judgement to the Son.

Vs.23 That all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father. He that does not honour the Son, does not honour the Father who has sent Him.

Vs.24 Verily, verily, I say to you, He that hears my word, and believes on Him that sent me, has everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but is passed from death to life.

Vs.25 Verily, verily, I say to you, the hour is coming, and now it is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

Vs.26 For as the Father has life in Himself; so He has given to the Son to have life in Himself.

Vs.27 And has given Him authority to execute judgement also, because He is the Son of man.

Vs.28 Do not marvel at this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear His voice:

Vs.29 And shall come forth; they that have done good to the resurrection of life: and they that have done evil to the resurrection of damnation.

At the end of the universe, Jesus has the final eternal say. The purpose why the Holy Ghost was not for once mentioned in the entire Old Testament scriptures should not be swept under the carpet. Bear in mind also, that for no reason must we forget that every mention of the Spirit of God, (whether in lowercase letter or capital letter) point to the same (yet to be called the Holy Ghost). Note that the revealed supernatural Body that touched Moses physically is the manifestation of the immortal Body of God, or His image. By such manifestation, God is scripturally called the LORD. That is the LORD, He is the God; as written in (1 Kings 18:39). Repeating some of these issues is made to remind you some of the things you have already read in this book. It was in the same ever living Image or Body Moses saw, that he was created: you were created: all mankind were created in it. The Image of God is the creational factory where your spirit being was manufactured.

John 1:9-10

Vs.9 That was the true Light that lights up every man that comes into the world.

Vs.10 He was in the world, and the world was made by Him, and the world did not know Him

Psalm 27:1

Vs.1 The LORD is my Light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?

When He finally manifested in flesh as the Lord Jesus, He said, "As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world (John 9:5). And again in

John 8:12

Vs.12 Then Jesus spoke to them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that follows me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.

Colossians 1:16-17

Vs.16 For by Him were all things created

- i. That are in heaven
- ii. And that are in earth
- iii. Visible and invisible
- iv. Whether they are thrones
- v. Or dominions
- vi. Or principalities
- vii. Or powers;
- viii. All things were made by Him; and for Him.
- ix. All things are for Him. That is why He is the Lord.

Vs.17 And He is before all things, and by Him all things consist.

Naturally, God should not have any son or daughter, because He is a Spirit, and not a natural man. He should neither have a son nor daughter because He cannot marry being a holy Spirit.

Dual Creation

1. In the spirit. Gen. 1:27 - as God
2. In the physical. Gen. 2:7 as the Lord God

The Lord might have prepared a special womb in Mary particularly for the Lord of glory to use before Mary had human children. With God nothing is impossible. Then after using a supernatural womb for Himself. He as God, is very able to fit in a natural womb for the natural children she had after Jesus. As a common man, I can't imagine myself thinking that the Lord of the entire universe should use the same womb with mere creatures. Yes for one body of same woman, it somewhat agrees with the scripture. That is, "one body, the Church".

There is never a time majority of humans will not believe in Jesus very lightly: just as a man whom God sent with a publicity to save us. This could also contribute to why after a while some quit from Christ. More so, majority take the matters and issues of God very light and common. Let's remember that after the Holy Ghost fell upon the disciples, they rather chose to die for His sake instead of denouncing Him for persecution sake.

Chapter 10

HOW TO PRAY AND WHAT TO CONFESS?

He had never married anybody in heaven, because, there is neither male nor female in heaven to procreate (Luke 20:27-36). Seeing that it entirely falls on His shoulder to redeem mankind from sin, He released His Lordship image or body into the womb of a chosen holy virgin, and came into the world as a man. This is mysterious. This theophany emergent did not stop Him to remain the Almighty God that He is. Being the Wonderful God, He was both in heaven and on earth at the same time. In heaven He is the Father; on earth He is the Son. Remember, "With God all things are possible" (Luke 1:37). Read the following scripture again even if we had read it before.

Hebrews 2:14-17

Vs.14 For as much then as the children (of men) are partakers of flesh and blood, He Himself also took part of the same; that through (His) death He might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

Vs.15 And deliver them who through the fear of death were all their lifetime subjected to bondage of uncertainty (ies)

Vs.16 For verily He did not take on Him the nature of angels (to avoid a frightening appearance); but He put on flesh as the seed or children of Abraham.

Vs.17 Wherefore in all things it behoved Him to be like (us) His (redeemed) brethren, that He might be a faithful and merciful High Priest in every things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

L

It is all about Jesus. Now, having read the above scripture very cautiously, you could see that the paraphrasing of them helps a lot to get the understanding to the mind. Another interesting thing is that the scripture reveals that the ultimate redemption blood belongs to the Holy Ghost. Is the Holy Ghost not the Spirit of God? How come this Spirit has blood?

Let's find out

Acts 20:28

Vs.28 Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock, over which the Holy Ghost has made you overseers, to feed-(nourish) the church of God – (with the truth); which He has purchased with His own Blood

Analysis

The Person that purchased us from everlasting destruction with His blood is Jesus, the Lamb of God according St John 1:29, 36.

It was Jesus

1 Peter 2:24; Matt 16:21 – Who took our sufferings

John 19:33 Who died for our sin's sake

John 19:34 Who shed His blood on the cross

John 20:9, 21-22 Who resurrected and became a Ghost

John 21:12, 15-17 Who gave overseers charge over the flock in His Ghost (immortal) body.

Hear what Jesus said "that you might believe I am He."

John 13:19

Vs.19 Now I tell you before it comes, that, when it is come to pass, you may believe that I am He.

I am giving you the under stated scripture to read and considerably meditate to understand it better than ever.

Let's go

1 John 4 verse 1-2

Vs.1 Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but try/test/examine/ the spirits whether they are of God; because many false prophets are gone out into the world (to represent Christ falsely).

Vs.2 This is how you should know (the voice of) the Spirit which is of God: every spirit that confesses through a man that Jesus Christ by whom heaven and earth were created is come in the flesh, is of God.

The Lord has endowed me with this grace to share with you the unquestionable riches of His glorious revelation of the mysterious truth of eternal salvation. Jesus says as recorded in St John's book

John 13:20

Vs.20 Verily, verily I say to you, whoever receives whomsoever I have sent receives me; and he that receives Me receives Him (God) that sent me.

This is divine connectivity. God to Christ; Christ to man; receiver to God Almighty. After reading this book, the best response is to return to God in prayer, and amend your ways before late hour or book for counselling to understand more in areas you are not very clear. Beware not to be tempted to fight against Christ like the Pharisees, by speaking evil of the contents of this book due to your untenable level of understanding. Please note that it is only by understanding the mysteries of the Kingdom of God that generates the true fear of God in your heart. He created the universe by mystery. By mystery He can be understood.

Levels of Understanding

After the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead, He appeared to the disciples mysteriously in an upper room where they were hiding for the fear of the Jews. It is wrong for any one to blame a novice for inability to perform as a professional. For example, it appears strange to assign a toddler to what a grown adult should do. The disciples of Christ were at a time myopic about resurrection. When it happened most of them doubted until He manifested His immortal Ghost to them. While Jesus was with them, they were only limited to knowing Him as a very great prophet sent by God to help them out of the dominion of the Roman empire. Listen to their question even after His resurrection

Acts 1:6

Vs.6 Therefore when they were come together, they ask Him, saying, Lord, will you at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?

The Lord is good and did not condemn them for their spiritual immaturity as at then. Rather He replied them by saying in verses 7-8

Vs.7 ... It is not for you to know the time, or the seasons, which the Father has put in His own power.

Vs.8 But you shall receive power, after that the Holy Ghost is come upon you; and you shall be witnesses to me both in Jerusalem, and in all Judaea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth.

When Jesus manifested to His disciples at the upper room where they were hiding for the fear of assailants, they were astonished to see Him.

John 20:19

Vs.19 Then the same day at evening – after they had doubted the news of His resurrection, being the first day of the week (Sunday), when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, Peace be to you.

Vs.20 And when He had so said, He showed them His hands and side. Then were the disciples glad, when they saw the Lord again.

Vs.21 Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be to you: as my Father had sent me, even so have I sent you.

Vs.22 And when He had said this, He did what?

breathed upon them, (as He did when He formed man's body out of the dust of the ground), and said Receive you the Holy Ghost which was Himself, the standing Ghost with them.

That day the door to receive Him (the Ghost) was opened: but they were not filled that same day. He asked them to wait to be filled the power from on high, (Luke 24:49). He was going to descend from on high. Then on a particular Pentecost day He came being the Holy Ghost and filled them all, including His earthly mother (Acts 1:4). Incidentally one Thomas Didymus was absent among the disciples when Christ arrived with His immortal Ghost body. He swore never to believe that He was risen. Read on

Vs.25 The other disciple therefore said to him (Thoman Didymus), we have seen the Lord.

But he said to them, except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand in His side, I will not believe.

Vs.26 And after eight days again, His disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus and stood in the midst and said, Peace be to you.

Vs.27 Then He said to Thomas, reachout your finger here, look at my hands: and reachout your hand here, and thrust it into my side: and do not be faithless, but believing.

Vs.28 And Thomas answered and said to Him,

1. My Lord and
2. My God

The knowledge of Thomas Didymus was very far to imagine how such destroyed body on the cross which he witnessed, could be heard to have risen from the dead. When the Lord appeared the second time when Thomas was present, He upbraided him for his unbelief. In his confounded amazement he exclaimed by inspiration "My Lord and my God". Thomas was extremely right. Jesus is the Lord who is the God (1Kings 18:39). Please note that there is only one mysterious God, who is the Lord, as His manifesting Body. He is the Spirit who is now the Holy Ghost (Eph 4:4-6; John 4:24; 2Cor.3:17; Deut 6:4).

Ghost In The Ghost

L

It is a very expensive statement for the holy scripture to call a man "a child or son or daughter of God". To be called a son of God, one has to become like a little Jesus. No, not the very Jesus Christ, but replica or a carbon copy of Jesus. This agrees with the scriptures which say in;

1 Peter 2:21

V.21 For even hereunto were you called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow His steps.

John 3:6

That born of the flesh is flesh; and that born of the Spirit is spirit.

Galatians 2:20

V.20 I am crucified with Christ nevertheless I live; yet not I, but it is Christ that lives in me: and the live which I now live manifesting through my flesh, I am living by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave Himself for me

Before going further with more scriptures, let this sink into your heart that a transformed human being who has been born of the Spirit, is a spirit, though he is still living in his natural fleshly body. The spirit of man is a living ghost using natural body to be able to live on this terrestrial earth planet. This is why it is said that someone has given up the ghost when he dies. If you are indeed in Christ you are a ghost of the Holy Ghost. If you are in sin, satanic, you are a ghost for Satan. As soon as you depart from fleshly body in death, you will be separated to where you belong: while the flesh you used for your living will return to the dust and perish. Let this ring bell in your mind daily.

Philippians 2:13

V.13 For it is God who works in you both
(i) to will and
(ii) to do
of His good pleasure. That is, as it pleases Him.

Colossians 1:27

V.27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles: which is Christ in you, the hope of glory

Every bible believer likes to simply confess that Christ dwells in him. I wish no one should addict himself with such a fascinating imagination that the resurrected Christ lives in him just, because he wishes so. That scripture indicates that it is a mystery, a mysterious thing that the resurrected Ghost of all ghosts should dwell in the spirit of any living soul. He does not dwell in unsanctified spirit in man. For example, let's read through

John 2:23-25

V.23 Now when He was in Jerusalem at the Passover, in the feast day, many believed in His name, when they saw the miracles which He did

V.24 But Jesus did not commit Himself to them (the believers in His name), because He knew all men,

V.25 And has no need that any should testify of man: for He knows what was/is in man

Mankind was naturally, born filthy hence it is written that all have sinned and come short of the glory of God. And again, it is written that we were shapened in iniquity, and in sin our mothers conceived us. Satan littered, or soiled over 90% of every soul that ever came into the earth with unholy practices, which the Lord can never associate with. What do you say of Jesus not committing Himself to the multitude who believed in His name, because they saw His miracles? Listen, they believed in His miracles, but not in Him. The name cannot save the soul without the person who owns the name.

God has provided supernatural detergent in the blood of Jesus Christ to flush every satanic deposit in the human nature. With spots and wrinkles in any life, Christ can be with you and not in you. Life with spot and wrinkles is a misery, but the life of Christ is a mystery. If any man is fully cleansed, his life becomes free for the mysterious presence of Christ in him. It is a mystery to understand the mysteries of the Kingdom of heaven.

Why should the Lord Jesus Christ choose to stand at the door of the heart knocking according to Revelation 3:20? The answer is clear. He wants you to give up what He cannot co-habit with. Man is not clean. He is either proud, unloving, self-centred, crafty, deceitful, lustful, ritualistic, holy, or robbing God of tithe and offering, hypocritical various compromises whispering, lies etc.

The nature of Satan inseminated into man, has become the nature of man since the fall of man into sin, in the Garden of Eden. You have need of divine nature from God where Christ may conveniently dwell to bring in the hope of glory even eternal salvation. The divine nature as recorded in 2 Peter 1:4, is the very nature of God to replace Satan's nature in man.
