

maintained in the family. But even this must not be allowed to take the place of personal devotions. You will gradually develop to pray much. We are taught in the Scriptures that "men ought always to pray, and not faint" (Luke 18:1), and to "pray without ceasing" (1 Thess. 5:17).

In conclusion, here is just a word of warning. Though you are a new creature, you must still dwell in this body of flesh with its lustful nature. Therefore you will be able to live above sin by God's grace.

In these times, remember that Christ is interceding for you. "Wherefore he is able to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by Him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them" (Heb. 7:25). The holy bible, admonishes us not to sin. That is, to not willfully commit sin (willful sin is inexcusable).

God's word says: "My little children, these things I write unto you that ye sin not. And if any man sin, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous" (1 John 2:1). Remember that it is either you repent or perish (Lk. 13:5). Wages of sin is death (Rom. 6:23). Remember Jesus is your Advocate. He is interceding for you before the Father not over your beloved lust in which you are delighted, but for you to be preserved in your sanctified living.

May God bless you richly, and cause you to be a very fruitful believer. Jesus says: "I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in Him the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing" (John 15:5).

MY AGREEMENT TO RECEIVE CHRIST AS MY SAVIOUR

I confess to God that I am a sinner, and believing that the Lord Jesus Christ died for my sin on the cross, and was raised for my justification. I do now receive and confess Him as my personal Saviour: AMEN

KINGDOM PROGRESSIVE JOURNEY AHEAD

BELIEVERS

For NEW BELIEVERS

Good Counsel

You have accepted Christ as your Saviour, and now you are a believer; where are you going to from here? As a convert you may be a little uncertain as to just how to get started in the Kingdom life. One young man expressed it this way: "I have religion and do not know what to do with it."

In considering your course from here, let us first consider what change has taken place in your life. The apostle Paul says: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature" (2Cor. 5:17). You are no longer citizen of the kingdom of darkness, but you have been born into the Kingdom of light; a child of the heavenly King Himself.

Then if you are a new creature, and have become a child of the heavenly King, it naturally follows that you should begin now to live a new life; that you should so conduct yourself as becomes a royal child (1 pet. 2:9). Again we hear God's word says: "Therefore we are buried with Him by baptism into His death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life" (Rom. 6:4). Striving to live a holy life, then, should be our first concern as we set out the road of the Kingdom life.

The next in order in the course of Kingdom living, is Kingdom service. You could not work to save yourself; for salvation is "not of works, lest any man should boast" (Eph. 2:9). But we are instructed to "be careful to maintain good works" (Titus 3:8). God does not require that you try to do things which you cannot do. But He knows the things you can do, and will expect you to do them. "God's word tells us that there are diversities of gifts, but the same spirit" (1 Cor. 12:4). If you can sing, sing for the glory of God. If you do personal work, pray for a burden and put your talent to work. Whatever your talent is, use it freely for the Master Jesus.

Now that we have discussed the course of the kingdom life, let us talk about some things that are necessary to keep one on the course until the goal is reached; the goal of heaven and immortal glory.

If you were to start on a journey to some distant city, you would need something to help you get there. First, you would need a road map to show you which road to take. For your Kingdom journey you will also need a road map. This you will find in the Holy Scriptures. Read them carefully, and search them diligently, for they are the only dependable source of information concerning the Kingdom highway. "Study to show thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth" (2 Tim. 2:15).

Then you would need fuel to keep you going until you reach your city. For this you would be stopping at filling stations along the way for a refill" as you assemble yourself with other believers in God's household to worship Him.

Jesus says: "The hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshippers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him" (John 4:23).

The Bible book of Hebrews says: "And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works: not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day (of Judgement) approaching" (Heb. 10.24-25).

It is very important that you attend the worship services every Sunday and weekly activities. You cannot have strength to keep going in the Kingdom journey if you isolate yourself from God's fellowship of the saints, or fail to worship Him who saved you from sins.

Finally, there is the matter of food. One would not think of setting out on a long journey without some source of a food supply. A good supply of food is also very important for your Kingdom journey. You must have plenty of good spiritual food to give you power and vitality; and to give you stability in Kingdom service. Part of this food will come from the worship service, but not nearly enough. For an abundant supply of spiritual food, there is nothing that can take the place of daily devotions. This is very important. The main reason some folk fall by the way on the Kingdom journey is that they neglect to maintain a consistent devotional life.

The easiest way to keep daily devotion is to set aside a time and place for prayer and Bible reading. And once you have settled on a time and place, do not let anything interfere with it. As you commune there with Christ your Saviour each day through the reading of His word and prayer, you will begin to grow in grace and knowledge of Kingdom of truth. You will grow to be more Christlike in your everyday life, and will gain power to meet and overcome the temptations of Satan; and power to witness for Jesus wherever you go.

Family devotions are also essential for glorious Kingdom living, and should be
